(37 C.F.R. 1.121)

Applicants submit this corrected Amendment to the claims in response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment mailed April 11, 2006. Only the corrected section of the non-compliant amendment document has been resubmitted herewith, e.g., the entire "Amendments to the Claims" section of Applicants' Amendment. Please refer to Applicants' prior Response, mailed on March 21, 2006, for consideration of the Response to the outstanding Office Action (restriction requirement imposed) mailed March 13, 2006.

In response thereto, Applicants elect Group I, claims 1-20, drawn to a fuel composition comprising a spark-ignition. This election is without traverse.

The independent claim reading on the elected invention is claim 1. Claims 2-20 add additional features and should remain in the application as appropriate dependent claims. At the Examiner's request, this Response is accompanied by a listing of all of the
